PASTOR'S MESSAGE

As I reflect back on my first year as your pastor, I thank you for your patience, kindness and understanding in getting to know me. I know that I have tested some of you beyond your comfort level. Please accept my apology. I do not set out to hurt anybody. It is a by-product of my own shortcomings and sins.

I thank you for your ongoing support of the parish, its ministry and its outreach into the community in its charitable giving. Your support to the St. Joseph's School Project and your present support in sponsoring our refugee family are part of your faith in action.

I also thank you for the support we received for Family Nights and for your support of our Parish Mission. I have heard many people speak favourably about the Mission and have had a few families express a desire to continue with Family Nights. By bringing a dish of food or helping out with music, a specific night or an activity, you help add to the Spirit of Community we are trying to build.

Looking forward to next year, I hope to do some work on organizing Small Faith Groups in our parish. It is my hope that, by bringing more people together around Scripture, prayer and mutual friendships, we may become more supportive as a faith community.

I am also planning to work more closely with Immaculata Regional High School in helping our young people grow closer to Christ in prayer. In both cases, I will entrust these efforts to God, and the wonderful things he has in store for those who turn to him.

Fraternally in Christ,
Fr. Bart van Roijen

Maria Goretti

Witness the Mercy of a Young Martyr

Persevering faith, sacrificial love, and extraordinary mercy. This is the story of eleven-year-old Maria Goretti, one of the Church's youngest martyrs and canonized saints. You're sure to be inspired by this young girl's unwavering commitment to Christ and her family's heroic faithfulness amidst tragedy.

"Perfect for families . . . Maria was such an amazing soul. We can all work hard to grow in the direction she was living."

—Kyla L.
