PASTOR'S MESSAGE

I would like to congratulate all the graduates from our parish. For some, these will have been the most tense years of your life.

With graduation comes a world of possibilities. This too, may present its own problems and difficulties. For some, it will take some time to gain a footing; for others, it is full steam ahead.

I would like to take a moment to speak about the human and spiritual formation you have received. Knowledge is good; self-knowledge is better. The one who stands on solid ground and is rooted in Christ will better withstand the turbulence that lies ahead.

Wherever you go, whatever you do, please stay connected with the Catholic community in your area. Though the building may look different and the faces may seem strange, your place is among them. It is there that God will continue to speak to you, be it through words of encouragement, reproof or invitation. Do not be too quick to cast it all aside.

Please continue to listen to God's voice in so far as God would like you to give your life in love. Not all people are called to marriage, nor are those who are not called to marriage automatically called to priesthood or religious life. Christian love within the Church and within the world has many expressions. Do not be afraid to explore God's call. This journey is the most rewarding of all.

Pray for your classmates and the young men and women of your generation. Pray for a generosity of Spirit, a discernment of heart and a willingness to be of service ... and we, at St. Charles Garnier parish, will pray for you.

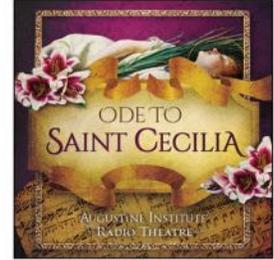

Fraternally in Christ,
Fr. Bart van Roijen
