November 2018

Monthly Parish collection budget	$42,500
Collections/SAG received this month to date	$15,808
Average weekly collection for November	$ 7,904

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

I would like to thank Phil Dillon for his work on the Parking Lot Lights Projects. Many of you have already commented on the difference the lights have made. Please make sure to thank him for spearheading the projects. The total cost is estimated at around $16,000.

We've also received permission to go ahead with our rectory renovations. Our present rectory was built for three priests. It contains four bedrooms, two with full bathrooms and two others sharing a full bathroom, a den, a living room, a kitchen, two large offices, a bathroom downstairs and a laundry room.

After the renovations the main floor will be divided in two, making room for a separate apartment, with its own entrance, for a retired priest at below market rent. The rent will eventually pay for the cost of the project over time.

We would also like to use this opportunity to switch to natural gas. Our electric furnaces and water heater are at the end of their lifespan, making it an ideal time to switch to natural gas. This part of the project will involve connecting to the natural gas supply line running alongside Benvoulin Road. This project will also pay for itself over time.

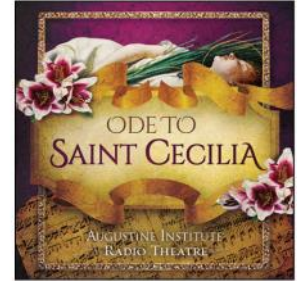

The total cost of the entire project is estimated at $114,000 plus taxes; $70,000 for the apartment, $44,000 for the transfer to natural gas (including furnaces). Both projects are fiscally sound and will pay for themselves over time. But they will draw on our reserves in the short term (which would reduce our reserve from $500,000 to $375,000).

Fraternaly in Christ,
Fr. Bart van Roijen

Your Pilgrimage of faith Appeal envelope should have arrived at your home by now. For those who have not received it, please pick up a package from the ledge in the foyer. No gift is too small and we are counting on 100% participation of all parishioners.

WHY GIVE MONEY?

1. Generous giving reflects an attitude of gratitude for God's abundant gifts to us; we give because we have first received.
2. Monetary gifts can supply practical help to the least and last, Jesus's special friends.
3. Giving is a feel-good activity, providing a drug-free high.
4. Money can jump-start worthy efforts or enable established projects to continue.
5. Giving money reminds us that we are all interdependent parts of a variety of much larger networks, including a global economy.
6. Giving money is good practice for the many types of letting go life requires of us.
7. Giving money to charitable organizations can provide tax deductions.
8. Giving money reminds us that we can be free from a scarcity mindset that operates out of fear.
9. How we give our money reveals to us and others what our true priorities are.
10. Write your own #10.

BEGINNING A CONVERSATION

Greetings my name is Fr. John Kellogg. Bishop Gregory Bittman has appointed me to minister among the Indigenous communities of the Diocese of Nelson and to collaborate with the Pastors in this ministry. I thought it would be good idea to give a brief introduction of myself and a brief introduction of the plan which is titled: "Beginning a Conversation."

I was Ordained for the Diocese of Nelson on June 7, 1987 and have served in two Parishes in the South Okanagan Deanery, two Parishes in the West Kootenay Deanery, One Parish in the North Okanagan Deanery, and the bulk of my time in six Parishes in the East Kootenay Deanery. At one time or another I have Celebrated Mass in every Parish and Mission in the Diocese. I know a great number of people here and treasure my time among you.

A "First Nations Initiative" will be offered in the Diocese for each Advent and Lent. The Advent theme will be focused on Hope and the Lenten theme will be focused on Reconciliation.

For this Advent Season there will be three bulletin/newsletter inserts for reflection. Join with your family, friends, members of parish groups that you belong to, or even those you don't know and begin a conversation. Make it fun and enlightening. Try to find out all you can about what they think and avoid trying to convince them of something else. Other resource material will be made available and I would be happy to answer questions or give guidance as needed.

If you are inspired by something in the conversation:

- email me a brief comment at FNM@nelsondiocese.org,
- send an even briefer text to 250-317-4575, or
- talk to me in person.

Then, continue the conversation with others. Comments will be formatted and make them available with the other resources.

Bishop Bittman has offered his ongoing prayers and support as we begin and I offer my abiding prayers for all of you in this blessed Advent Season. Please offer your prayers as well and continue to participate in your regular Advent devotions and Parish offerings as we ready ourselves to celebrate the Incarnation – May Jesus be truly with you.

Open the Doors of My Heart
A PRAYER FOR THE WORLD DAY OF THE POOR

"As long as Lazarus lies at the door of our homes (cf. Luke 16:19-21), there can be no justice or social peace." Pope Francis

God of Abraham,
On my television,
On my newsfeed,
On my street,
Everywhere I go,
I see Lazarus.
But I also see so many doors,
Doors that I've built,
That I've closed.
Doors that society has hung and locked.
Doors that separate me from Lazarus.
Lord, teach me to open the door to Lazarus,
To the poor.
To know them as your children,
To lift them in their distress,
To work to help them find a fair share of your bounty.
This World Day of the Poor,
Help us all turn to those outside our door.
To bless, heal, comfort,
And together, from this day forward, build a world,
Where the poor are strangers to none,
And, indeed, the very chains of poverty are broken.
Amen.
