PASTOR'S MESSAGE

At our latest Usher's workshop, we reviewed our emergency procedures. In the case of a medical emergency the ushers will be responsible for attending to the person, finding a nurse, doctor or first aid person to assist, phoning 911 and waiting outside for the ambulance. Much of this has already been happening and we ask for the assistance of those with medical training to continue to offer their assistance in these instances. Clear instruction regarding street address are at each of our phones (Kitchen and Sacristy). We are also looking into purchasing an AED machine for those who may have had a heart attack. In the case of a medical emergency the Mass will continue as usual with the possible exception of not using the aisle at communion time if it hinders the first aid attenders. The most important thing for everyone to do is keep the person in your prayers.

In the case of a fire or other emergency, please keep in mind that there are many exit points. Please take a moment to become aware of the many ways you can exit the building. The ushers will be there to assist. Please also be aware that it is crucial for us to muster on the lawn near Mary's Grotto. This is to ensure that everyone has actually left the building. It is crucial, therefore, that you do not hop in your cars and drive away. We will be asking everyone to take a quick look around to make sure that their nearest pew mates are accounted for. For the safety of all concerned, and to make sure no one needs rescuing, please don't forget to muster on the lawn near Mary's Grotto. Thank you.

Fraternally in Christ,
Fr. Bart van Roijen

FORMED PICK

Jesus the Bridegroom

By Dr. Brant Pitre

The Greatest Love Story

Dr. Pitre applies his knowledge of the Jewish roots of Christianity to the very heart of the Gospel: the love of Christ. You will learn what it really means to have a “personal relationship” with Jesus Christ as Lord, Savior, and Bridegroom.

“Dr. Pitre does a fabulous job at balancing key aspects of the faith-salvation history, Eucharist and Marriage. A must to listen to!”

PILGRIMAGE OF FAITH 2018-19

"Jesus said, Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the Good News, who will not receive a hundredfold now in the age." (Mark 10:29-30)

Your Pilgrimage of faith Appeal envelope should have arrived at your home by now. For those who have not received it, please pick up a package from the ledge in the foyer. No gift is too small and we are counting on 100% participation of all parishioners.

Thus far, we have raised $ 48,085 which is 58.8% toward our Pilgrimage of Faith Goal. Your continued support is necessary to meet the many needs that face us today, such as ministry to our indigenous peoples, or the education of our seminarians. Please help us to meet these needs.

Electronic deductions for the refugees will take place on the 30th of each month. Forms are available from Marilee in the SCG office. Most people appreciate a gift made to charity in their name, instead of a physical gift. It's a totally thoughtful way to show you care--a gift from the heart, not a shopping cart. With each gift of $20 or more to St. Charles Garnier for the refugees, you will receive a beautiful holiday donation announcement card with a wonderful recipe and photo of the Khan family to send to your loved one.

Donations will be accepted after all masses Dec. 1/2 and Dec. 8/9 or in the SCG office during regular office hours.

Added bonus: Your gift qualifies for a tax deduction.

RETROUVILLE

---

Faith, Hope and Love . . .

Are these present in your marriage?

Have you given up hope that they can be?

In 1 Corinthians 13:13 Jesus tells us the greatest of these is Love. Living in a marriage that is missing love can be difficult. If you have given up hope that your marriage can and will get better, ask your spouse to consider attending a Retrouville program. Retrouville is an international Christian-based ministry that offers a three-stage program to help couples improve their marriages. First, a weekend program is attended, followed by post-weekend meetings. Finally, an on-going monthly small group of couples gather for support and growth. If improving your marriage is important to you, reach out today. For more information about an upcoming Retrouville Weekend program for couples, contact our registration team Marc and Candice at 604-530-6710 or visit www.retrouvillevancouver.com and www.retrouville.org

BEGINNING A CONVERSATION

~ Part 2 ~

The overall theme for First Nations Ministry is Respecting the Sacred. The themes for Advent will be as follows: for the first Sunday of Advent – Sacred Name, the second Sunday of Advent – Sacred Place, and the third Sunday of Advent – Sacred Time. Since the fourth week is a really short one, there are no sessions planned.

Next week the conversation will begin and suggestions will be given for each week.

Currently in our diocese, there is one First Nations Church that celebrates Mass weekly, several that have Mass monthly, one that has Mass three times a year, one twice a year, and several that have not celebrated Mass in many, many years.

This will also be the first time in our diocese that an invitation has been extended to our diocesan Catholic Schools. The BC Ministry of Education has developed a new First Nations Principles which is embedded into the curriculum and is part of the learning program in our Catholic schools. For the First Nations students attending our schools, these young members of our Catholic family will be a part of a broader conversation for a long time. We pray for healing and understanding as we all seek unity.

Many communities have very active Métis groups and we want to reach out and include them too. The richness that is ours: being served by Priests from the Philippines, India, Africa, Ireland, and North America. We are truly blessed to have this cultural diversity.

New announcements will continue until Sunday, December 16th (the Third Sunday of Advent). Each announcement will suggest a specific conversation. After your time with others there are a number of possible ways to share the results with me:

- Talk to me in person (I am visiting throughout the Diocese)
- Email me a brief comment at: FNM@nelsondiocese.org
- Send an even briefer text message to 250-317-4575

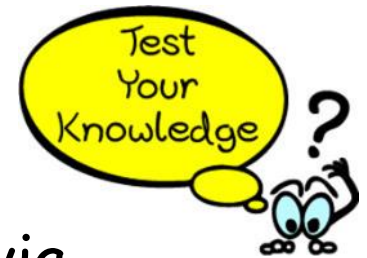

Fr. John Kellogg
First Nations Ministry
Diocese of Nelson

Please note:

- Online resources coming soon
- Next week: Session 1 – Sacred Name
