PASTOR'S MESSAGE

There are many ways we can have our children more involved at Mass. We would like all those who have received First Communion to consider becoming an Altar Server. We also would like to encourage more parents to take our Safe Environment training and consider helping out with Children's Liturgy on a monthly basis. Ushers are encouraged to select families with children to bring up the gifts and the 10:30 am homily on the last Sunday of the month will be addressed to children.

But there are more ways to have our children more involved. And one such way is through the use of Pew Art. During the time the children are in church we encourage them to pay attention to some part of the liturgy, be it the readings, the processions, the singing or the activity at the altar and to draw a picture having to do with some element of the Mass. Just as some adults benefit from bringing a notebook and writing down insights that they might have, children begin to process their insights through pictures and older children through writing. Pew Art may be shared, with the larger community, on the Pew Art bulletin board in the foyer. Pew art should not be seen as simply keeping our children busy, but a way of helping them enter into the Mass.

Please be advised that next weekend (Oct. 13th and 14th) is Ministry Fair Weekend. Take a moment to wander through the hall and consider helping out in one or another way in the various things that are going on. Take a moment to speak to someone who has chosen to be involved and show them your appreciation and support. You may also want to donate to those ministries that address the needs in our community.

OCTOBER IS WORLD MISSION MONTH

“Go! Make disciples of all nations.” (Mt.28:19) These words—the imperative mission of Christ—call each baptized Catholic to action. The Church has a lasting mission to perform in this world, a mission that is ever more apparent, and the need for it is ever more urgent. In fact, mission isn’t something the Church does. It is what the Church is!

This year, World Mission Sunday is on October 21st. This is a worldwide collection of the missionary Church that offers emergency aid when disaster strikes, cares for refugees in war-torn countries, provides rural health clinics and transportation for priests, catechists, religious and lay pastoral workers. It offers financial support for the daily needs of all missionaries. Please pray for the missions and be generous on World Mission Sunday.

Psalm of the Cosmos

Loving God, loving God,
all creation calls you blessed,
and so do we, and so do we.

Loving God,
all your creation calls you blessed.
Your spirit imprints the whole universe with life and mystery.
Yes, all creation proclaims your love.
We now join this chorus of praise.

Loving God,
all of nature calls you blessed,
and so do we.
For you have woven an intimate tapestry
and call it life
and called it good.

In love you have formed a universe so diverse yet so related,
and into its web you call us forth to walk the land and swim the sea with all our natural brothers and sisters.

To the stars
we seem no more than blades of grass.
Yet to you, each of us,
as each blade of grass and each star,
is an irreplaceable treasure,
an essential companion on this journey of love.

Loving God, as you lure the whole world into salvation, guide us with your Spirit
that we might not be only pilgrims on the earth,
but pilgrims with the earth,
journeying home to you.

Open our hearts to understand the intimate relationship that you have with all creation.
Only with this faith can we hope for tomorrow's children.
Amen. Alleluia!

Loving God, loving God,
all creation calls you blessed,
and so do we, and so do we.

MOVIE NIGHT

Our next movie night with Fr. Ron Dechant, OMI will be on Monday, October 15th @ 7:00 pm in the hall. The movie is “Thérèse”, the true story of Saint Thérèse of Lisieux — the most popular saint of modern times.

A bourgeois girl from a Victorian French family, Thérèse journeyed to Rome to beg Pope Leo XIII for permission to enter the Carmelite monastery at the unheard-of age of 15. Through the rigors of monastic life, she made the surprising yet simple discovery that holiness can be achieved by small acts of love and compassion—a spiritual path she called her “Little Way”. 96 minutes.

PILGRIMAGE OF FAITH 2018-19

"Happy is everyone who fears the LORD, who walks in His ways. You shall eat the fruit of the labour of your hands; you shall be happy, and it shall go well with you." (Ps 128:1-2)

Today the 2018-2019 Pilgrimage of Faith Appeal begins in our parish and throughout the Diocese of Nelson. This is an opportunity for us to unite with all our diocesan brothers and sisters to share our blessings and to show our concern for one another. Your gift is important. It will assist the parish and the diocese in providing a wide variety of religious, educational, pastoral and charitable services throughout our communities.

CONSIDER BECOMING A SACRISTAN!

Our parish needs additional Sacristans. It's a "behind-the-scenes" ministry allowing for quiet service in the church, the duties are a devotional joy!

Your duty is once a month and training is with an experienced Sacristan. Individuals or couples, young or mature ~ a rewarding opportunity to serve your parish that comes with many blessings.

Rachel's Corner

"Like a ship's anchor hidden far beneath the water's surface, God is at work in our lives even when we don't see Him... even when we can't hear Him. So, when our faith falters, remember, we don't need to see, we don't need to hear, we just need to trust. Jesus is your anchor." June Hunt

Since your involvement in an abortion decision have you felt like you have been adrift in a sea of regret and anger and you have no way to put that into words nor anyone you can tell about how it has affected you? The team at Rachel's Vineyard understand that feeling and are inviting you to join them on a Rachel's Vineyard Retreat Weekend.
