PASTOR'S MESSAGE

While reflecting on last week's homily, on the sexual abuse scandals that have rocked the Church, both in our diocese and in many regions of the world and the confidence of countless millions of believers and non-believers alike, I couldn't help but notice a glaring omission: the many who have suffered sexual abuse at the hands of church officials and their agents in residential schools. They, too, are part of our overall family. They, too, deserve our acknowledgement, our prayers and our support.

I could also not help but think of how we have vilified the media or the prosecutors who worked to expose these stories and worked tirelessly to pursue criminal charges and accountability. They have done us a great service. Though their work may have caused us to gasp in horror at the extent of the heinous crimes, their relentless pursuit for answers force us to look long and hard at that which has long been ignored or left to fester.

As for convincing anyone to stay (or come back), I leave that to God. It is only in so far as God has used the Church, its sacraments, its faith, its people, its traditions and its call to live the Christian faith as a community of believers that many of us choose to stay. The pain we choose to bear is partly our own pain, shock and disgust, but more so the pain of those who suffered and those who continue to suffer in other parts of the world. Let us pray and work together, building on the work that has been done in our diocese and others, for the day that the truth is fully revealed in all jurisdictions and the Church is purged of this heinous crime. Let us pray for the courage to remain true to God and each other in difficult times. Please join us for an hour of prayer on Thursday, September 6th from 7-8 pm for those who suffered at the hands of Church Officials and Agents.

Fraternally in Christ,
Fr. Bart van Roijen

FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK

Who Am I to Judge?

Presented By Dr. Edward Sri

How can we stand up for truth in a world that says there is no truth?

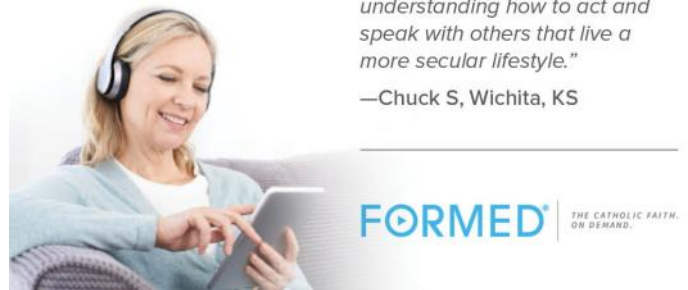

How can we explain our moral convictions without being labeled “judgmental?” Join Dr. Edward Sri as he explores what the Church teaches about truth and learn how to better explain it without fear of being “intolerant.”

“Well explained! I definitely feel more at peace knowing and understanding how to act and speak with others that live a more secular lifestyle.”

PETITION OF ONE MILLION PRO-LIFE SIGNATURES

CANADA'S UNBORN CHILDREN STILL AWAIT LEGAL PROTECTION.

DID YOU KNOW THAT IN CANADA 100,000 ARE KILLED BY ABORTION ANNUALLY? THATS ONE IN FIVE BABIES. CANADIAN CHILDREN IN THE WOMB SEEK JUSTICE FROM PRIME MINISTER JUSTIN TRUDEAU.

PETITION OF ONE MILLION

Please help us to achieve the goal of collecting one million signatures to be presented to the federal government asking them to enact legislation granting full legal protection for the unborn child. We therefore encourage all people of good will to sign the Petition of 1 Million. Sadly we cannot protect the 4 Million children killed by abortion since 1969, but we can recognize and dignify their lives with every signature we collect. Thank you for your participation in our attempt to change this legislation in Canada.

We will be collecting signatures before and after the Masses on the week-ends of September 1-2 and September 8 -9.
