God said "Let the children come" and we agree!

We are the children's liturgy team at the 10:30 mass on Sundays. Rod and Jen are new to Kelowna, but that has not stopped them from stepping forward. Allison (on the left) and Paulina are moms who have seen their children benefit from learning about God in a fun and safe environment.

We feel that we have been called by God for this important ministry. God may be calling you too. Please listen to your hearts and consider assisting or joining with us as we are only 2 teams and we want to cover three Sundays a month (the fourth Sunday is the Knights of Columbus breakfast). This ministry is a wonderful opportunity to help grow the faith.

The commitment is small:

- A bit of lesson prep. Lessons have already been pre planned as we were fortunate enough to have been given them to us by another parish.
- Take the Safe Environment training as required by our Diocese.

And as long as you have a patient and caring heart, it does not matter what your experience is. Whether you are a parent, grand parent, student or fellow parishioner, we will work together to serve this important ministry.

Please come talk to us after mass on the days we are offering children's liturgy. If you are interested in any way, big or small, we would love to talk to you. You can also contact us by email. Please keep this good work in your prayers.

MOVIE NIGHT

Our next movie night with Fr. Ron Dechant, OMI will be on Monday, February 27th @ 7:00 pm. The film is entitled "A Time for Miracles". In 1975, Elizabeth Bayley Seton was canonized as America's first native born Roman Catholic Saint. Her story is inspiring; born in 1774 of a very distinguished family, Elizabeth seemed destined for a tranquil life. At age 19, she married William Seton and bore him five children. William died and she then learned that her family fortune was lost. She converted to Catholicism at a time when Catholics were the object of persecution in the United States. Her family, even her own children, were shocked by her decision, but she persisted. Through a friend Elizabeth met Bishop Carroll who gave her the mandate to found the American Sisters of Charity and the first American Catholic parochial school. Until the end of her life, she championed education for women of all faiths, and her order also establish orphanages and hospitals.
