PASTOR'S MESSAGE

In my ongoing look at "Praying with the Bible", I would now like to take a brief look at praying with Jesus' parables. Parables are unique stories with multiple levels of meaning. Jesus was by no means the originator of this form of teaching and some of his parables did not originate with him.

Jesus used parables to provide some insight into the Kingdom of God and the workings of God. Parables dealing with managers were often directed towards his closest disciples and were meant to instruct them in regards to their role as stewards. Jesus also used parables to promote or warn against certain behaviour.

In praying with the parables, the first question one must ask is "what is so unusual about this parable". Since God's ways are not our ways, each parable contains one or more element that helps us ponder the things of God. The sower sows the seed without seeming to care where it falls. The man who pays the last worker as much as the first breaks from any human convention and the kingdom being compared to a seed are all insights into the Kingdom and God's ways.

On Thursday, February 21st at 7 pm we will continue with our series on "Praying with the Bible". During this session we will be looking at the Passion narratives as rich sources of prayer, strength and encouragement. Far from repelling us, the Passion accounts are meant to draw us into the love and mercy God has for us and shed some lights on how we are called to greater discipleship in him.

Fraternally in Christ,
Fr. Bart van Roijen

WORKSHOP

LIVING HOSPITALITY IN THE WAY OF JESUS: Inclusive? Radical? Transforming?

We show hospitality to strangers not merely because they need it, but because we need it, too." St. Benedict's Rule suggests that everyone who comes to our lives—the poor, the traveler, the curious, those of different religion, social class, or education—should be welcomed in, not just as an honored guest but as a window into the sacred presence. Our encounter with the stranger, the unknown, the unexpected, the foreign elements that spark our fear, are precisely the places where we are most likely to encounter God.

If you are curious about learning more about offering and living hospitality in the way of Jesus, please join us for a full day workshop as we explore the following questions: "What is Radical Hospitality?" and "What does or could Radical Hospitality look like in our daily lives, in our worship services, in our outreach, in our language, and in our physical building space?"

Saturday, February 23, 2019—9:30am to 4:00 pm, First United Church, 721 Bernard Ave. Kelowna, BC Cost $30.00

Register: Contact First United Church office 250-762-3311 or Eventbrite.

GRIEF TO GRACE—There is help ...

If you have suffered abuse, you may have lived in great isolation and loneliness. You may be keeping shameful secrets. You may be afraid of being judged as unworthy or bad. You may have been called terrible names and have come to believe these as true. But these are not the truth. The truth is that something terrible happened to you and, because of a noble spirit, you have survived. The truth is that you are a child of God, "fearfully and wonderfully made" (Psalm 139). We want you to recover your unique beauty and worth, hidden by something terrible, but now ready to be claimed – the real you.

Please contact us in complete confidence to learn more. We understand it can be difficult to talk about what has happened and that interested individuals may be a long way from deciding to attend a retreat.

Grief to Grace-Reclaiming the Gift of Human Dignity - is a spiritual journey for anyone who has suffered degradation or violation through sexual/psychological abuse, rape, incest, physical or emotional abuse & neglect or other forms of traumatic violation in childhood, adolescence, or as an adult.

Applications are now being accepted for the next Grief to Grace program in Kelowna, May 2-5, 2019.

To register or more information call 250-878-7603 or email g2gkelowna@gmail.com or griefftoalice.org
