PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Developing the Sense of Belonging!

A few weeks ago, some of our Parishioners were turned away for lack of accommodation for Sunday Mass (due to the Govt. regulations of # 50) I was observing them moving slowly with disappointment. I reflected a while after the Service, their emotion of 'being left out'. It's not only painful but also hurtful. In the deepest of myself, I sought forgiveness from the Lord for turning them away.

Have you ever felt left out? How did you feel it at that moment? Being excluded or rejected is a painful emotion often times we experience in our lives. How can we help out such situations?

Developing a sense of 'Belonging' promotes self-esteem, acceptance, confidence in an individual tells Psychology. Abraham Maslow an erudite Economist wrote, "Belonging is a major human need". We all belong to some particular club or group either cultural or religious.

Members of the human family belong to everyone. But frequently due to ideological, religious, and cultural values we separate ourselves. Belonging is a feeling intrinsic to all. We wish to belong but we are excluded.

Does God exclude anyone from His Mighty love? "Even if the mother who gave birth to you forgets, I will never forget you" (Is 49:15) says the Lord. So, we all belong to God and God belongs to all of us. "Nothing can separate us from the love of Christ" (Rm 8:35) Don't feel left out. This is only a temporary measure. Even this will pass away.

With all good wishes!
