PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Sisters & Brothers in the Lord!

Challenges Shape Our Spiritual Life! The other day I was quietly sitting in the Church after the morning service when all our parishioners had left the premise. Someone unknown to me walked in and sat before the Altar sorrowful, oftentimes groaning and sobbing with anguish filled tears.

After a while, this individual walked over to my place and asked whether it would be permissible to spend some quality time with the Lord? I was a little skeptical to leave the church unattended. But this individual quickly explained that the situation that forced such a request was that 'my dad is at the point of death & I wish to pray for his happy death'.

I was startled initially but reacted gently assuring of my prayer support. Before I left the Church, I invited this individual to come to the Rectory for a cup of coffee, which was a piece of welcoming news to this exhausted person.

When this individual knocked at my door after a lengthy interval, I invited to sit at the table and waited on. Our conversations continued and this individual felt consoled and left the place satisfied telling me 'let me come back to the church as often as I can'.

It was a moment of sharing our faith and helping a parched soul that was searching for the loving touch of God the Father. During these days of the unforeseen life-altering situation, we are faced with similar dryness in our spiritual experience.

May the God of peace help everyone with His Loving Touch!

Affectionately in Jesus,

Fr.Gabriel.C
