Elisha and Two She-Bears

A minister was talking to a children's Sunday school class about the Old Testament story of the children who mocked Elisha on his journey to Bethel. For once, he had everyone's attention, as he described how the youngsters taunted the poor old prophet and how they were punished: Two she-bears came out of the wild and ate 42 of them. "And now, children," said the pastor, wondering whether he had gotten his point across, "what does this story show us?"

A little girl in the front raised her hand and said, "It shows how many children two she-bears can hold."

OUR GRADS

Every year we honour our High School Grads at our 7pm Mass (those that we know about – who belong to our Parish or were Confirmed here). We present them with a gift to help them in their journey, introduce them, and what they're proud of. It is hard to get in touch with all of them, they are busy people. I asked those I was able to get in touch with about what their plans/hopes are for the future. This is the first time we have decided to publish it in the bulletin so that you can pray for them and congratulate them for their hard work when you see them in person.

Thank you – Kevin & Staff.
