SHARE LENT

WEEK 5

"Mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instills in us the courage to look to the future with hope."

(MV 10)

During this season of Lent, Pope Francis has challenged us to experience a conversion that opens our hearts to be merciful.

This conversion must fill us with the courage to not only extend our hand to our sisters and brothers in the Global South but to transform our lives so that all can live in dignity.

In his encyclical Laudato Si', Pope Francis calls on our spirit of solidarity by reminding us that the Earth is our common home. It is not meant for one people or one nation, but for all of God's children.

With the way that we currently live, we are eating up the Earth's precious resources, pushing temperatures to rise to dangerous levels and in the process denying millions adequate food, proper shelter and a decent wage.

Let us finish this pilgrimage towards conversion by choosing to take steps to live more simply, by being in communion with all of humanity and caring for our common home. There are many ways to begin on this new path: make your home more sustainable; consider your needs rather than your wants; generate less waste; eat local and organic foods as much as possible; or try to commute in a more sustainable way.

And, as Pope Francis reminds us, the path is already laid out for us: "The universe unfolds in God, who fills it completely. Hence, there is a mystical meaning to be found in a leaf, in a mountain trail, in a dewdrop, in a poor person's face. The ideal is not only to pass from the exterior to the interior to discover the action of God in the soul, but also to discover God in all things." (LS 223)
