PASTOR'S MESSAGE

In his Lenten message, Pope Francis speaks of “the healing power of repentance and forgiveness.” He quotes St. Paul saying, “the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God” (Rom 8:19), for by taking up “the healing power of repentance and forgiveness” Christians turn away from the destructive power of sin to re-engage with their relationship with God, others and creation.

Pope Francis rightly points out that “when we fail to live as children of God, we often behave in a destructive way towards our neighbours and other creatures—and ourselves as well—since we begin to think more or less consciously that we can use them as we will.” Our desire to want more than we actually need blinds us to the harm our actions have on others and on creation. We act less as stewards of creation and our brother's and sister's keeper and more as if all things are meant to serve us.

“This ‘Eager longing’, this expectation of all creation, will be fulfilled... when Christians and all people enter decisively into the ‘travail’ that conversion entails.” “Lent is a sacramental sign of this conversion. It invites Christians to embody the paschal mystery more deeply and concretely in their personal, family and social lives, above all by fasting, prayer and almsgiving.”

Fasting opens us to a change in our relationship to the world around us, “turning away from the desire to ‘devour’ everything... and being ready to suffer for love.” Prayer teaches us to abandon our self-sufficiency “to acknowledge our need of the Lord and his mercy.” Almsgiving helps us to escape patterns of hoarding and be more in tune and cooperate with God's providence and generosity towards all.

In his final paragraph, Pope Francis urges us “not to allow this season of grace to pass in vain.”

Faternally in Christ,

Fr. Bart

If you have given up hope that your marriage can and will get better, ask your spouse to consider attending a Retrouvaille program. Retrouvaille is an international Christian-based ministry that offers a three-stage program to help couples improve their marriages. First, a weekend program is attended, followed by post-weekend meetings. Finally, an on-going monthly small group of couples gather for support and growth. If improving your marriage is important to you, reach out today. For more information about an upcoming Retrouvaille Weekend program for couples, please contact our registration team Marc and Candice at 604-530-6710 or visit www.retrouvaillevancouver.com and www.retrouvaille.org

GRIEF TO GRACE—There is help ...

If you have suffered abuse, you may have lived in great isolation and loneliness. You may be keeping shameful secrets. You may be afraid of being judged as unworthy or bad. You may have been called terrible names and have come to believe these as true. But these are not the truth. The truth is that something terrible happened to you and, because of a noble spirit, you have survived. The truth is that you are a child of God, "fearfully and wonderfully made" (Psalm 139). We want you to recover your unique beauty and worth, hidden by something terrible, but now ready to be claimed – the real you. Please contact us in complete confidence to learn more. We understand it can be difficult to talk about what has happened and that interested individuals may be a long way from deciding to attend a retreat.

Grief to Grace-Reclaiming the Gift of Human Dignity - is a spiritual journey for anyone who has suffered degradation or violation through sexual/psychological abuse, rape, incest, physical or emotional abuse & neglect or other forms of traumatic violation in childhood, adolescence, or as an adult.

Applications are now being accepted for the next Grief to Grace program in Kelowna, May 2-5, 2019.

To register or more information call 250-878-7603 or email g2gkelowna@gmail.com or griefftograce.org

What happened to the Alleluia?

You'll notice during Lenten masses you won't hear the Alleluia or the Gloria. Some parishes and Catholic schools even hold a special ceremony to "bury" the Alleluia until Easter Vigil.

Why do we do that?

Lent is a time of penance and preparation, when our focus is on the coming of Christ, both in Easter and when Jesus comes again in glory (second coming).

The Alleluia and Gloria are times in the Mass when we join with all the choirs of angels in joyful celebration. We offer these up at Lent in anticipation of their return at Easter. A great moment of joy in the liturgy is at Easter Vigil Mass, when all the lights in a darkened church are suddenly illuminated at the singing of the Gloria (a must-see if you've never stayed up that late!)

Gospel of Luke

Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white.

Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to Jesus. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his exodus, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him.

Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah," but Peter did not know what he said.

While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!" When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone.

And the disciples kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

Signs, symbols and gestures which remind us Jesus is really present to us ...

When the red sanctuary lamp next to the tabernacle is lit, Jesus is present in the tabernacle in his Body.

Note, when we enter the church and genuflect, we are kneeling to Jesus in the tabernacle, just like the knights of old to their king. Attention is directed to the altar only after Mass has started.

When you hear bells, that's a reminder something important is happening!

The bow we make just before we receive the Body of Christ in Communion isn't a greeting for the priest or Eucharistic minister. Our bow is a reminder for us that we are approaching royalty, the majesty of Jesus Christ our King!

Of course there are many other signs of Jesus in the church and the Mass.

So, you followed your teacher on a

What is Jesus telling me?

hike, and you were all tired so you settled down to rest. Your teacher is praying, and starts to glow with a dazzling light, really glow, and then suddenly he's talking to two really famous dead people about this amazing thing he's about to do in Jerusalem, like saving the entire world, past, present and future. A massive cloud rolls in and you hear God's thunderous voice straight from heaven saying, "This is my Chosen, my Son. Listen to him!"

Jesus became man to redeem us of our sins, and also because we needed him to be one of us, so we could approach him, learn from him, and be healed. Sometimes we focus so much on the Son of Man, we forget the divinity and majesty of Jesus, Son of God.

When we approach Jesus in the Eucharist at Mass, we see bread and wine, but if we saw Jesus in all his glory would we dare approach him?

When I enter the church, am I aware that Jesus is present, waiting for me, in the tabernacle?

Do I sometimes forget I am receiving the Son of God himself when I approach the altar?

Did you know?

Lord, I am not worthy ... but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

In the not-too-distant past, Catholics would faithfully attend Mass, but not receive Communion.

Why? Different reasons through the ages, including various heresies which bred fear in the unworthy to approach the "awesome table of the Lord," extreme requirements for penance and preparation in the medieval period, and a 12th century focus on Eucharistic adoration where, for many, gazing on the Eucharist took the place of receiving.

It got so bad that the First Lateran Council of Bishops in 1123 made it mandatory for Catholics to receive Communion at least once a year. This was followed by exhortations and decrees from several popes and Councils. Now we understand, Jesus commanded us to "Take and eat" (Matthew 26:26). We are worthy, because Jesus has made us worthy. Through Communion, we receive forgiveness and healing, the strength to avoid sin, and unity with God and his Church.

Spend 4 1/2 minutes. Check out Sacraments 101 – How to Receive the Eucharist at www.nelsondiocese.org in the Videos section of the Faith Formation web page.

I see you Jesus!

1. Colour the sanctuary lamp RED to show Jesus is in the tabernacle.

Where is the tabernacle in your church?

(Hint: It's usually behind the altar, in the center or off to the side. Look for the lamp!)

2. Draw a FLAME on top of the Paschal candle to show Jesus is the Light of the World.

The Paschal candle is used at Easter and the Rite of Baptism. You received the light of Jesus at your baptism!

(Hint: The Paschal candle will be shorter now, but a new tall candle will be part of the Easter Vigil Mass!)

3. Draw the BREAD and WINE on the altar.

The bread and wine will become Jesus during the Mass.

Share the journey with members of the Umuechem community in Nigeria

In 1990, a peaceful community in the south of Nigeria became the victim of what has been recognized as the first crime committed by an oil company. Traumatized by a massacre of unparalleled violence, a large majority of the members of this community fled to neighbouring communities, never to return home again. To make sure that their story is never forgotten and to combat impunity, Development and Peace's partner Social Action is supporting the Umuechem community in their legal action against the oil company.

After the Storm: Building the Pope Francis Village
Wednesday, March 27 at 6:00 pm. Soup and a bun followed by the movie at ICC PARISH HALL.

This 47-minute documentary is an inspiring journey that follows poor coastal communities in the Philippines who lost everything to Super Typhoon Haiyan. When local organizations supported by Development and Peace –Caritas Canada arrive to work alongside these communities, they are confronted by survivors who are dispossessed, living in tents, dependent on aid, and facing eviction from the land they have always known. But what happens when you bring the people together? When they are given a voice and a chance to be heard? When they know how to take action? Join us and be inspired by the resiliency of the families who built the new village
