Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Much has happened since we announced a few weeks ago our intention to open a Thrift Store. Combined with other factors, our inability to obtain suitable, affordable retail space has made it unfeasible to continue with this plan at the present time. However, plans which are in the works right now will hopefully help raise the funds we require on an on-going basis, to do our work with the disadvantaged in our community. We will keep you posted of developments.

HOME SHARE PROVIDER REQUIRED

Home Share Provider Required For 19 Year Old Young Man

Our family is currently looking for a nurturing and supportive home for our 19-year-old special needs son Cameron to live. He is the young man who sits in the front pew with his mom at 10:30 mass. He is kind, loving and very social. He requires one-on-one support for his day-to-day life.

Your family is compassionate, caring and patient. You are faith based and embrace wholeheartedly our catholic community. You can pass a background check (Criminal Record, Drivers' Abstracts, etc.) and live in Kelowna. Cameron currently attends community programs 26 hours a week with a support person. Both his parents will be actively involved in his life. Experience working with special needs adults or background in the health sector would be an asset. Funding for the family to support Cameron is provided through the Provincial Agency Community Living B.C.

If this is something that you feel would be a great fit for you and your family please email: joanne@h-b.ca or call her at 778-821-2863 for more information.
