SUN COME UP

Thank you to all who attended the screening of “Sun Come Up” and gave of their time and shared their ideas of possible ways to reduce the effect of climate change. Here are some of the ideas gathered during the evening:

- Financial idea: loans to churches—giving up interest, only principal paid back
- Social media—eg. Twitter or Facebook—bring awareness
- Education
- Tree planting—(however this is mostly mono culture losing diversity)
- Save gas by doing other errands when your car is already going
- Welcome them (environmental refugees) to Canada, if they choose
- Minimize your wants and focus on your needs
- Purchase local products where possible
- Write to governments regarding dangerous products exported to China—BE ACCOUNTABLE
- To give some money to help the relocation for these families
- To pray for them (victims)
- To pray for them (polluters)

Thank you to Fr. Pat for his moving call to action! We hope to do a follow-up next year during Lent.
God Bless you all!

SECULAR FRANCISCANS

SECULAR FRANCISCANS will be celebrating the Transitus of Saint Francis on Sunday, October 21st at 12:30 pm at St. Charles Garnier. Visitors are warmly welcome! More information contact Alice 250-860-3541.

Franciscan Focus

Franciscans celebrate annually a ritual known as "Transitus". They celebrate the ending on earth of the life of Francis. Many creative rituals are designed for this celebration. It is generally held on October 3. Franciscans can design their own particular rituals for the Transitus. Francis died on a Saturday evening, October 3, 1226. He was canonized two years later on July 16, 1228. Upon the completion of the Basilica of St. Francis of Assisi, his body was buried there. His tomb is in the lower crypt of the Basilica. Francis spent his last days in praise of God and teaching his brothers. Celano writes of the ending of his life:

"He exhorted death itself, terrible and hateful to all, to give praise, and going forth joyfully to meet it, he invited it to make its lodging with him. 'Welcome', he said, 'my Sister Death.' To the doctor he said: 'Tell me bravely, Brother Doctor, that death, which is the gateway to life, is at hand.' then to the brothers: 'When you see that I am brought to my last moments, place me naked upon the ground just as you saw me the day before yesterday. And let me lie there after I am dead for the length of time it takes to walk a mile unhurriedly.'

The hour, therefore, came, and all the mysteries of Christ being fulfilled in him, he winged is way happily to God."

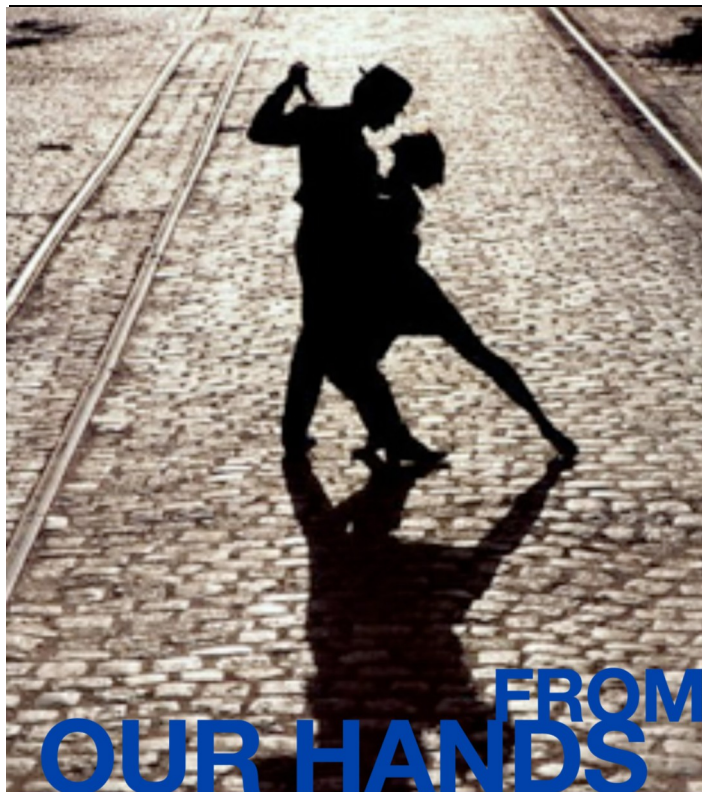

("2 Celano" - #217—Omnibus of Sources—p. 536)
