Their willingness to move to Thursdays in order to serve the parish is very much appreciated.

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION PROJECT

ST. CHARLES GARNIER PARISH is pleased to participate in an important international climate change education event.

WHAT: AN INTERNATIONAL SCREENING OF THE ACADEMY AWARD-NOMINATED DOCUMENTARY SUN COME UP.

As we remember the Feast of St. Francis, named patron saint of those who promote ecology by Blessed Pope John Paul II, the Catholic Coalition on Climate Change is sponsoring an international screening of the Academy Award-nominated documentary Sun Come Up. The film depicts some of the world's first "forced climate migrants," inhabitants of the Carteret Islands just north of Bougainville, Papua New Guinea. The Catholic Church has been instrumental in helping to relocate these "environmental refugees."

After the film, there will be a facilitated discussion about the film and action steps that viewers can take to respond to the unfolding climate perspective based on authentic Catholic teaching.

WHEN: October 4, 2012, 7:00 – 9:00 pm on the Feast of St. Francis.

WHERE: St. Charles Garnier Parish, 3645 Benvoulin Rd. Kelowna, BC

FOR MORE INFORMATION: visit catholicclimatecovenant.org

Pope Benedict XVI: "Can we remain indifferent before the problems associated with such realities as climate change . . . Can we disregard the growing phenomenon of 'environmental refugees', people who are forced by the degradation of their natural habitat to forsake it – and often their possessions as well – in order to face the dangers and uncertainties of forced displacement?"
2010 World Day of Peace Message, No. 4

ADDITIONAL BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Pope Benedict XVI and the U.S. Bishops recognize the human causes of climate change and understand it as a moral issue grounded in ancient teachings—to “cultivate and care for” God’s good gift of Creation (Genesis 2:15)—and as part of what a Christian witness is today. They call on people of faith and good will to address this challenge.

This call has added urgency as predictions of a warming planet are now becoming reality, as people around the world are experiencing increased drought, wildfire, flooding, food and water stresses, disease and population displacement. These phenomena compromise key elements of Catholic social teaching, including our commitments to protect human life and dignity and to be especially mindful of poor and vulnerable who are disproportionately harmed by environmental degradation and climate change.

A Sampling of Church Teaching on Climate Change

Blessed Pope John Paul II: “The danger of serious damage to land and sea, and to the climate, flora and fauna, calls for a profound change in modern civilization's typical consumer life-style, particularly in the richer countries” (1999 World Day of Peace Message, No. 10).

Pope Benedict XVI: “Preservation of the environment, promotion of sustainable development and particular attention to climate change are matters of grave concern for the entire human family” (Letter of His Holiness Benedict XVI to the Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople on the Occasion of the Seventh Symposium of the Religion, Science and the Environment Movement).

U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops: “In facing climate change, what we already know requires a response; it cannot be easily dismissed. Significant levels of scientific consensus—even in a situation with less than full certainty, where the consequences of not acting are serious—justifies, indeed can obligate, our taking action intended to avert potential dangers. In other words, if enough evidence indicates that the present course of action could jeopardize humankind's well-being, prudence dictates taking mitigating or preventative action” (Global Climate Change: A Plea for Dialogue, Prudence and the Common Good).

New Efforts within the U.S. Catholic Community

In 2006, the Catholic Coalition on Climate Change was launched with the support of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). The Catholic Coalition on Climate Change supports and complements USCCB’s Department of Justice, Peace and Human Development and the bishops’ Environmental Justice Program.

A central project of the Coalition is the Catholic Climate Covenant: The St. Francis Pledge to Care for Creation and the Poor by which Catholic individuals, families, parishes, dioceses, schools and other organizations commit to:

- + PRAY and reflect on the duty to care for God’s Creation and protect the poor and vulnerable.
- + LEARN about and educate others on the causes and moral dimensions of climate change.
- + ASSESS how we-as individuals and in our families, parishes and other affiliations-contribute to climate change by our own energy use, consumption, waste, etc.
- + ACT to change our choices and behaviors to reduce the ways we contribute to climate change.
- + ADVOCATE for Catholic principles and priorities in climate change discussions and decisions, especially as they impact those who are poor and vulnerable.

Those interested in taking the Pledge are encouraged to register their commitment online at catholicclimatecovenant.org. You can also connect with the Coalition on Facebook at facebook.com/catholicclimatecovenant and on Twitter @CatholicClimate.

CATHOLICISM

Last chance to sign up for CATHOLICISM—deadline is this Wed. Sept. 19th. Cost is $10 plus optional workbook for and additional $20. We have decided to start the afternoon session of CATHOLICISM one week later beginning now Oct. 3rd so that people can still have the opportunity to sign up for that time as well as to stagger the program so that if you miss an evening session you can attend the afternoon to catch up.

Answering the call for The New Evangelization, this multimedia educational program reveals the truth, beauty and goodness of the Faith in an unprecedented way. With creator and host, Fr. Robert Barron, participants will learn what Catholics believe and why, while being immersed in the art, architecture, literature, music, and all the riches of the Catholic tradition.

"CATHOLICISM could well become one of the most significant efforts ever to advance what Pope John Paul II called 'The New Evangelization.' Truth, goodness, beauty – they're all here, in a stimulating and compelling exploration of the spiritual, moral and intellectual riches of the Catholic world. This is the Catholic story told from inside, with knowledge, sympathy, and passion, rooted in friendship with Jesus Christ."
— George Weigel, biographer of Pope John Paul II
