ST VINCENT DE PAUL FEAST DAY

September 27 is the Feast Day of St Vincent de Paul which will be celebrated by Vincentians around the world. He was a priest who lived in the 1600's who ministered to the poor. The last weekend of every month is our SSVP Sunday when we stand at the back of the church with our "Poor Baskets" to receive your donations. During Mass at the offertory we bring a small basket of food items to the foot of the altar which is symbolic of the baskets of food we give to our friends in need. We present this as a visual reminder of the work we do, not just at Christmas time, but throughout the year. Thank you for helping us to carry on this work of charity.

INTERESTED IN CATHOLIC FAITH?
