SOCIETY OF SAINT VINCENT de PAUL

Blessed Frederic Ozanam is our Founder and our inspiration. We are praying for his intercession through Our Lord on behalf of a person known to, us who is critically ill that if it is God's will she be touched by His healing hands. We ask you to pray with us.

Blessed Frederic Ozanam

Frederic Antoine Ozanam was born on April 23, 1813 in Milan, Italy. He was the fifth child of fourteen children, however, eleven died in infancy or youth. His parents were ardent French Catholics of middle class. When Milan fell to the Austrians in 1815 the family moved to the city of Lyons where Frederic spent his early years. Frederic became a day student at the Royal College of Lyons where he became editor of a college journal, The Bee.

During a time of revolution, in society and in the Church, Frederic and his fellow student friends decided to have Conferences of Literature, History and Philosophy.

Distraught by a world that, little by little, renounced Christianity, they came together with the desire to support each other in their faith and to grow together in their faith.

It is here that he established the Conference of Charity with other students not only to discuss and defend the faith but also to engage in practical works of charity.

They quickly saw the need to translate their faith into action. In 1835 the Conference was officially named the Society of St Vincent de Paul. They placed themselves under the patronage of St Vincent de Paul and they had no other ambition but to walk in his steps: to pray, reflect and act.

Emmanuel Bailly provided them a place to meet, counsel and example. When they decided to seek out and meet the poor Bailly sent them to be mentored by Sr Rosalie Rendu, Daughter of Charity. Frederic and his companions were inspired by Sr Rosalie who served the poor and needy.

In 1841 Frederic met Amelie Soulacoix whom he married in 1844. A daughter, Marie, was born to them. A loving husband and devoted father, Frederic achieved greatness as a gifted scholar, dedicated teacher, a generous Christian and a gentle reflective reformer.

True to the example of St Vincent de Paul, he creatively sought to respond to the needy with sensitive charity and to replace class struggle with just relationships. Frederic recognised the responsibility and the potential of the Church to be a true leavening force within society.

He called his associates to works of charity and justice.
