PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Brothers and sisters in the Lord!

Today's Scriptures invite us to reflect on the theme of "Our Christian Calling". Galatians 5:1 Tells, "For Freedom we are Called". Therefore, Christian Life is a privilege, a gift from God. It is a call to Holiness. It should not lead us towards Godless Conduct at any time. Through our Baptismal Grace we become Sons and Daughters of God. This Baptismal Grace initiates Holiness in every one of us 'to know God, love God and abide in God'. (1Jn:12,39 & 1Jn 5) Christian life has an aim: a) to know Christ b) to be found in His Love (Phil 2:18)

Christian Life has a purpose: a) to love & honor God and b) to love our people (Mt 22:34-38) Christian life has a goal: a) to reach heaven b) to see God face to face (Mt 25:31-46) Christian Life is therefore based on certain values: a) to accept everyone unconditionally b) to treat everyone with respect & dignity (non-judgemental attitude) and c) to encourage everyone to accommodate others in our company especially those with whom we have hostility and differences / who are considered to be enemies / who do not share our values.

Christian life is not based on 'status, power, privilege & position. But it is based on goodwill. 'Walking extra miles, building bridges & not walls, extending a helping hand or an Olive Branch to those who need us. It's ultimately making a difference in life like Christ our Lord & Master. Christ taught us to Love & Serve (Mt 22:37) "You must love your God with all your heart, soul and mind". Jesus also told us in Mt 22:39 & "You must love your neighbour as yourself" and in Leviticus 19:18 We read, "You must love your neighbour as yourself". Therefore Christian calling hinges on these Two Salient Features of Christ's Teachings: "Love of God & Neighbour".

All our Christian known and unknown saints have practiced this mandate of Christ, like Mother Theresa, Margaret Bourgeois, John Vianny, John Bosco, MaxMillien Kolbe, Little Flower, John Paul II, Dorothy Day, Monica, Augustine and others. Pope Francis teaches 'to have tolerance towards others' (not to be too critical of others / practice leniency towards others) Christian Freedom should help us to Love & Serve others like Christ who stooped down to wash the feet of his disciples (Jn 13:5)

Christian freedom should liberate us from our comfort zone / complacency to launch into the deep to build bridges by demolishing the outmoded practices of hostility and revengeful attitudes. Paul encourages the believers to "Walk by the Spirit"(Gal 5:16) Christian Spirit should guide us to walk extra miles and make a difference in life like the thousands and thousands of saints we honor every day. Our Christian calling should give way to finding a common ground in our arguments /deliberations. Our self-interest should give way to our broad mindedness to love and embrace / welcome everyone after the heart of Jesus.

Therefore, today we are invited to ponder over our Christian Calling in order to form a Christ Centered Church, based on the commandment of Love, especially 'love one another as I have loved you' (Jn 13:34) Everyone belongs to Christ whether a believer or otherwise, because we are all created in the image and likeness of God himself. (Ge 1:27) Let us try our best to give expression to this ideal of Christ in our life!

All the best.

Affectionately in Christ! Fr. Gabriel

“As you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world” (John 17:18)

The love that God the Father pours into Jesus the Son is then poured into us, his disciples, so that we can pour it into the world. Our neighbours in need see and feel this love when we reach out to give them a helping hand and encouragement. In the spirit of Pentecost, may we, as a parish, continue to support the Vincentian mission. And may we answer the call to volunteer in the Society to pour His love into the world.

We continue to pray that you will consider joining us for a meeting the 2nd and 4th Wednesday mornings of the month at 9am. Inquiries to 250-860-2536 or ssvpstcharles@hotmail.com
